From the Desk of the

FINANCIAL SECRETARY

My Brothers:

We held three of our famous Lenten Fish Frys this year. We served close to 200 meals. Everything was great. Food tasted fantastic and everyone seemed to be very satisfied and enjoyed the evening of fellowship. At the second Fish Fry March 1, we sampled fried shrimp and at the third and final Fish Fry March 15, we sampled smoked salmon. Our additions were greatly appreciated. We will investigate having them as additions to next year's Fish Frys. Our Chaplain, Fr. Dominic, got the evening started with the blessing at 5:00 pm and stayed for dinner and visited with everyone.

Our Annual Tootsie Roll Drive is off to a great start with chairman Tony Bernardo leading the way. So far, with five days of collecting, we have collected over $2,500 for our charities. We still have a weekend in May remaining to hit the $3,000 mark.

Sunday, March 31, was Easter Sunday. We had our annual Easter Egg Hunt in the grass area between the St. Joseph and William Rooms following the 11 am mass. The children enjoyed the hunt and receiving their bags of candy.

We will serve our Hot Breakfast of scrambled eggs and sausage with pancakes and yogurt with fruit and hash browns along with coffee and juice again April 21 and May 19. Then we will take the summer months of June, July and August off so everyone can enjoy their summer. We will return with our Hot Breakfast on September 15.

Election of Officers for the 2024 – 2025 fraternal year is fast approaching. We will be taking nominations at our Business Meetings on April 8, May 13, with the election at the June 10 meeting. If interested in holding an office, please let us know by calling either our Grand Knight Joe James at 727-480-4172 or myself at 727-967-1301. If no answer, please leave a message.

God Bless,

John Devaux,

Did You Know?

We spend six weeks each year during Lent fasting, praying and almsgiving. We hope to unite our fasting and praying with Jesus' 40 days of fasting and praying in the desert, to focus on preparing both our inner and outer selves to celebrate the great Easter feast. We give alms to identify with that great sacrifice of God giving His only begotten Son. With Easter on March 31 this year, I hope this finds that you had a very blessed celebration of this central Christian feast! Easter certainly brings thoughts of newness and renewal. We hope our fasting, praying and almsgiving renews our closeness to God.

As Spring settles in, I observe the many rituals of the season. I think of newness and renewal. Outside beds are prepared for new planning. I see the new blossoms on trees and flowers reaching full bloom, lengthening of daylight, and a rush of sounds and sights not seen for many months. Schoolchildren begin to count down the days to summer vacation. Parents do the same counting down...perhaps without the joy of the children! Spring seems to elicit looking forward.

As I look forward this Spring, I am renewed in my mission to meet with my members. I want to keep you apprised of any changes you might want to consider in your insurance program. I hope you will keep me apprised of any changes in your circumstances. Adjustments can be made to make sure that you are on the path to reach your goals.

The Order offers a diverse array of products and services to help you do that. Together we can complete or update your financial needs analysis. This can show where you stand and helps discover any gaps in protection you might have. Our products: life insurance, retirement annuity, long-term care insurance and disability income insurance, are our core products to help protect you and your family.

I'll call on you soon to see if it makes sense to arrange for a meeting.

Vivat Jesus!

Faith Director's Message

MARY 3 Gs

Remembering that the story in John 12:1-11 took place the day before Palm Sunday helps us find many ways Jesus was pointing His closest friends to what was on the horizon. We can see that because we know the rest of the story, but they didn't. After reading and praying with this Gospel several times, Mary emerged bigger and more powerfully each time I read it. The way she lovingly took part in this story left me with the "Mary 3 Gs" for loving and honoring Jesus.

Mary was GENEROUS. She didn't care how much the oil cost; she simply gave her most costly, precious treasure to Jesus out of love and devotion. She wasn't making an investment expecting a return. Her act was an emptying - jar busted and completely drained, all in a gift to Jesus. We are that treasure in the eyes of Jesus. He wants all of us, broken, spilled out and freely given to Him, the One who adores and treasures us infinitely.

Mary was GENTLE. There was no towel soft enough and no object more personal than her own hair, so she offered the most tender gift. In Paul's letter to the Corinthians, he speaks about a woman's long hair being her crowning glory. Mary surrendered her glory to serve and honor the One worthy of all glory.

Mary loved with GUTS. She had not a thought about what others would say or think. The opinion of others didn't matter because her only focus was finding the most intimate and personal way to show her love for Jesus. Even though Judas scolded and criticized, she kept on loving Jesus. There was no rebuttal, no conflict, no shirking away or justification, just generous, gentle, pure-hearted love.

Thank you, Mary, for your example of genuine love.

Why do Catholics and Orthodox Christians celebrate Easter on different days?

You can thank Gregory XIII for the extra helping of Easter eggs.

Kathleen Manning of U.S. Catholic

Since the early Middle Ages, all Christians have used the same method for determining the date of Easter, though they arrive at a different result. Described authoritatively in The Reckoning of Time by eighth-century English scholar Bede, "The Sunday following the full moon which falls on or after the equinox will give the lawful Easter." The equinox is observed on March 21. This straightforward method based upon an easily observable natural phenomenon survived the Schism of 1054, when the Catholic and Orthodox Churches split from each other. Still, if you have Orthodox Christian friends or visit a predominantly Orthodox country, such as Russia or Greece, in the late spring you may find yourself celebrating a second Easter.

You can thank Gregory XIII for the extra helping of Easter eggs. In 1582, the pope instituted a new calendar for all Catholic countries, and it would eventually be adopted as the civil calendar by countries throughout the world. The old Julian calendar year, created during the reign of Julius Caesar, was 11 minutes too long. That may not seem like much, but compounded over centuries, it was causing calendar days to shift in relation to natural phenomena like the change in seasons. Consequently, by the time of Gregory's papacy, the spring equinox could no longer be observed on March 21. The new Gregorian calendar brought March 21 back into alignment with the equinox by axing 13 days from the calendar for one year. To keep things in alignment going forward, the Gregorian calendar allows a centurial year, like 1900 or 2000, to be a leap year only if it is divisible by 400. The Orthodox churches continued to use the Julian calendar. Thanks to the 13-day difference between the two, the all-important date of March 21 on the Julian calendar corresponds to April 3 on the Gregorian calendar.

St. James the Apostle Assembly #3686

Why do Catholics and Orthodox Christians celebrate Easter on different days?

You can thank Gregory XIII for the extra helping of Easter eggs.

For the remainder of the 21st century, Easter will fall between April 4 and May 8 for Orthodox Christians, and March 22 and April 25 for Catholics. Still, Jesus only died and rose from the dead once, not twice within two separate five-week windows. In the interest of Christian unity, some religious reformers have pushed for creating a single Easter that all churches can observe. In 1997, the World Council of Churches proposed that Easter Sunday should be determined by when the astronomical equinox is observed in Jerusalem. This solution would sidestep the issue of any church having to abandon their calendar. However, Orthodox Christians would be more dramatically affected by this change than Catholics, since the astronomical equinox is much closer to March 21 on the Gregorian calendar than it is to March 21 on the Julian calendar.

Since the last call for reform at a 2009 meeting in Ukraine, attempts to standardize the date of Easter have stalled. In the meantime, Catholics and Orthodox Christians can look back to April 16, 2017, when their divergent calendars and calculations lead them to celebrate Easter on the same Sunday.
