Grand Knight's Message

Worth Knight's

During the sacred season of Lent, the Knights of Columbus play a vital role in supporting the spiritual life of St. Joseph Catholic Church. Lent calls the faithful to prayer, fasting, and almsgiving, and our council embraces these pillars through visible acts of devotion and service. From assisting with parish preparations to encouraging deeper reflection and prayer, the Knights stand with our parish community as we journey toward Easter.

A hallmark of our Lenten involvement includes supporting parish activities such as Stations of the Cross, Lenten missions, and community prayer services. Knights serve as ushers, lectors, and honor guards for special liturgies, helping maintain the reverence of the season. We also support the Friday Night Soup and Salad gatherings held before Stations of the Cross. Council 7408 is scheduled to serve on March 27th, and we look forward to providing a warm meal and fellowship for our parish families.

In the spirit of almsgiving, Council 7408 expands its charitable outreach during Lent by supporting food pantries, hosting donation drives, and assisting families in need. As we continue this season of reflection, we also look ahead to several important March events.

We will be working at this year's Lap's for Life on March the 7th. This event raises money for our pregnancy resource centers. MCC hosts the event on their running track from 9am till noon. March 14th is our Saint Patrick's Day Fundraiser—please purchase your tickets early. That same morning, the Saint Patrick's Day Parade will take place, and we encourage all Knights to participate. On March 21st, St. Joseph School will host its Gala, and we will be seeking volunteers to serve appetizers and assist behind the bar. Finally, on March 29th, Palm Sunday, we will host a Pancake Breakfast for the 5th Sunday of the month in the Parish Hall. Your participation and support strengthen our council and our parish community.

Vivat Jesus

Navigator's Log

Worthy Sir Knights,

As Sir Knights, we carry the responsibility of representing the principles of Patriotism, Faith, and Fraternity with dignity. Whether riding on our Mighty ship or standing watch at funeral's. Supporting parish events, like being present at Baptism's. Our presence reminds the community that the Knights of Columbus stands firmly for devotion to Church and country. The professionalism and reverence of our Color Corps continue to inspire parishioners and reinforce the noble heritage of the Fourth Degree.

During the week of February 9–15, 2026, our Assembly had the privilege of hosting the Sacred Heart of Jesus Icon as part of the Knights of Columbus Pilgrim Icon Program. The Icon was displayed reverently inside St. Joseph Catholic Church, offering parishioners a powerful opportunity for prayer and reflection. On the morning of February 12, Fr. Tim led a prayer hour ceremony, bringing us together in devotion to the Sacred Heart. This time of prayer strengthened our unity as Sir Knights and deepened our commitment to Christ's love and mercy.

As we continue our journey through Lent, we are reminded of the profound importance of prayer, fasting, and tithing. These three pillars call us to spiritual renewal and deeper discipleship. Prayer draws us closer to God, fasting helps us detach from worldly distractions, and tithing allows us to support those in need with generosity of heart. As Fourth Degree Knights, our witness to these practices encourages others in our parish to embrace the true meaning of Lent—a season of sacrifice, reflection, and preparation for the joy of Easter.

HONOR GUARD: If you are interested in helping with Honor Guard duties, please contact SK Mike Deschaine at (321) 698-2136. For those Sir Knights who do not have regalia, we do have some donated to us that would help alleviate the cost for those interested, until you are able to purchase your own. Ladies and Sir Knights if you have regalia that you are not using or have no longer need of and would like to donate or sell for the nominal price, please call one of the above Knights.

Deputy Grand Knight's Message

Brother Knights and Families,

As February comes to a close, I want to extend my sincere gratitude to each of you for your continued dedication to our council and to the mission of the Knights of Columbus. Even in a shorter month, your service, faith, and fraternity made a meaningful impact in our parish and community.

Throughout February, our council demonstrated the strength of brotherhood through participation, volunteerism, and support for one another. Whether through meetings, charitable outreach, or quiet acts of service, you embodied the principles of Charity, Unity, and Fraternity.

Thank you to all who gave their time and effort — your commitment continues to strengthen our council and the families we serve.

As we move into a new month, we look forward to continued opportunities for service and fellowship. Upcoming meetings, parish support efforts, and council activities will provide many ways to stay involved and make a difference together.

Your participation is what keeps our council strong and active. I encourage every Brother Knight to remain engaged and invite others to join us in our mission.

On behalf of our leadership team, thank you for your dedication, generosity, and faithfulness. It is an honor to serve alongside each of you.

May God bless you and your families.

Vivat Jesus!

Fraternally,

Kevin Freedman

Ladies Auxiliary News

Dear Ladies and Knights,

February turned out to be a sad month for many of our friends and families. Both Betty and Gigi each lost a sister and the Ladies lost one of our own, Carol Colon. Please remember to keep all of them in your prayers.

On a happier note, we are in the process of planning our Annual Fashion Show to take place on April 25th at 12 pm in the hall. Please consider buying and selling tickets so we can make this year another success. Remember, the funds we receive are given directly to the Columbus Club to help fray some of their costs. The Knight are generous enough to allow us meeting space as well as a closet to hold decorating supplies etc.

We encourage the knights to invite family members to join the Ladies Auxiliary. We are in dire need of new members to keep us a viable group. Any Catholic woman over the age of 18 is encouraged to join. We meet the second Tuesday of the month at 1130 for our luncheon meetings. In March we will be serving corned beef sandwiches with fixings so be there or be square!!

Also, in March we will begin asking members to donate to our Bakeless Cake Sale to pay for a $500 scholarship for a worthy eighth grader from St. Joseph Catholic School to help fray tuition costs to Melbourne Central Catholic School. Please pray about donating this year. More information will be sent to members during the month.

We also need to form a Nominating Committee to help identify officers for the upcoming year. Please consider helping.

God Bless Everyone,

Susan Burgess

President

Insurance Guy

Fr. McGivney – The Vision Of A Saint

The funeral was over. Another one.

Father Michael McGivney stood in the cemetery dirt, watching another widow try to figure out how she'd feed her children tomorrow. Her husband had died in a factory accident. No insurance. No savings. No help coming. This was the third funeral this month. Always the same story. The woman looked at him with desperate eyes. "What do I do now, Father?" He had no answer. Not a real one anyway.

Michael had grown up watching this happen. His own father worked brutal hours in a brass mill, breaking his body for pennies. When Irish families like his came to America fleeing starvation, they found a different kind of hell waiting. "No Irish Need Apply." The signs were everywhere. Catholics couldn't get decent jobs. Couldn't get insurance. Couldn't get help when tragedy struck. And tragedy struck constantly in those dangerous factories and rail yards. Every week, Michael buried someone. A father crushed by machinery. A mother dead from disease. Children who never had a chance.

After each funeral came the same heartbreak. Families destroyed overnight. Widows sent to poorhouses that were basically prisons. Children scattered to orphanages or left on the streets.

Michael couldn't sleep anymore. He'd walk the dark streets of New Haven, seeing families huddle in cold tenements, knowing that one accident, one illness, one bad day would destroy everything they had. The other priests told him this was just how things were. The rich took care of the rich. The poor suffered alone. But Michael refused to accept that.

Late one night in 1882, he had an idea that seemed almost too simple. What if Catholic men banded together? What if they pooled their money? When one of them died, his family would get help from everyone else. It wasn't charity. It was brotherhood. He started gathering men in St. Mary's basement. Factory workers with calloused hands. Shop clerks earning barely enough to survive. Immigrants who spoke broken English but understood perfectly what it meant to struggle.

"We take care of each other," he told them. "When your family needs help, we'll be there. When mine needs help, you'll be there."

They called it the Knights of Columbus. The name meant something. Columbus was Catholic. Catholics belonged in America just as much as anyone else. The first meetings were small. Maybe a dozen men sitting on wooden crates, planning how to save each other's families. But word spread through the immigrant neighborhoods. Here was something different. Here was hope. Michael threw himself into the work like a man possessed. He already worked eighteen-hour days as a priest. Celebrating Mass at dawn. Visiting the sick all day. Hearing confessions until midnight. Now he added this. Recruiting members. Organizing meetings. Handling paperwork. Traveling to other cities to start new groups. Friends begged him to slow down. He looked skeletal. His hands shook from exhaustion. "There's no time," he'd say. "Another family is suffering right now."

The Knights grew. Slowly, then faster. When a member died, his widow received money that let her keep her home. His children stayed fed. The system worked. Michael never stopped pushing himself. Never took a break. Never said no when someone needed help.

By 1890, his body was failing. He could barely stand through Mass. His cough wouldn't go away. Then pneumonia hit New Haven. As always, Michael went out to the sick. Gave them last rites. Comforted dying families. Breathed their infected air. He caught it himself. His friends carried him to bed. For the first time in years, Father Michael McGivney had to stop working. On August 14, 1890, two days after his 38th birthday, he died. Worn out. Used up. Gone. He never got to see what he'd built.

When Michael died, the Knights had maybe three thousand members. Small. Hopeful. Nothing more. He died thinking he'd helped a few families. Made a small difference. Maybe. He had no idea. Today, the Knights of Columbus has two million members worldwide. They've given billions to charity. They provide life insurance to millions of Catholic families. They run programs in dozens of countries. Every dollar donated traces back to that exhausted priest who wouldn't stop working.

In 2020, the Catholic Church declared him Blessed Michael McGivney, one step from sainthood. But here's what gets me about his story. He never got his victory moment. Never saw the crowds. Never received the applause. Never knew his work mattered on this scale. He just kept going until his body gave out. Trusting that somehow, helping one family at a time would add up to something bigger than he could imagine. Most of us want to see our impact. We want results we can measure. Recognition we can feel. Michael McGivney got none of that. He just worked himself to death for people he'd never meet, creating something he'd never see. And maybe that's the most powerful kind of service there is. The kind that asks for nothing back except the faith that somewhere, somehow, it matters.

Vivat Jesus!
