Grand Knight's Report

My brother's, as we end another month and enter Lenten season I hope all is well with each of you. I hope each of us finds a way to prepare for Easter Sunday.

We had an exceptionally good fish fry at Christ the King. We had sufficient help, but it is not right that we must ask people to work from 2:00 until 8:00. My brothers we have close to two hundred members and yet the same people show up to do the work. I know a lot of my brothers are still working but you can come by afterwards and relieve those that were able to start preparing everything. We had several brothers that did that and it is appreciated but we need more. I cannot name those that helped but please know it is greatly appreciated. I have heard nothing but complimentary reviews of the food and heard absolutely no complaints. Excellent job brothers. We know that we have two more fish fries coming up so please plan to help.

Please do not forget we will have our Easter egg hunt on April 4. Please plan to attend and help. We will need all your change to stuff the eggs with. Bring it to our next meeting.

God bless each of you and know that I love each one of you. MARY QUEEN OF THE KNIGHTS AND MOTHER OF JESUS PRAY FOR US.

Tom

Deacons Report

We are now in the full swing of Lent, and I am sure that everyone has made their Lenten resolutions.

One thing that we all MAY be guilty of is being judgmental about others. This is only human nature.

- * Why doesn't that person begging on the street corner clean up and get a job?
- * That obese person should stop eating so much, exercise and lose weight.
- * Look at all those disgusting tattoos. Why would someone do that to themselves?
- * That kid has his pants hanging way down below his waist. He must be in a gang.

I do not recall reading anything about Jesus' judging or belittling people (but I missed that lesson).

When we see people in those situations most people tend to look away hoping not to make eye contact. If we truly feel in our heart that everyone is created in God's image, we should not look away but look into their eyes. If we look hard enough, we may be looking into the EYES OF JESUS.

K'Cees Korner

May you all have a Blessed Lent and don't forget the Friday fish fry's .
