Through blurred eyes we find the strength and courage to soar beyond the moment.

We look to the future knowing we can never forget the past.

God Bless America

On September 11, 2026, our nation observes the 25th anniversary of the 9/11 attacks, a day that forever changed the course of American history. We remember the 2,983 lives lost in New York, Washington DC, and Pennsylvania, as well as the countless first responders and survivors who have suffered in the years since. A quarter century later, the call remains the same: to honor their memory through prayer, compassion, and acts of service. May this anniversary renew our commitment to unity, resilience, and faith in the face of adversity.

Grand Knights Message

AUGUST 2026

Brother Knights,

Well, we made it to September. Everyone's kids and grandkids should be back in school. It'll soon be getting dark earlier and hopefully the temperatures will become bearable.

We will be having an Oktoberfest dinner dance. Brothers Paul Martin, Ed Ciacone and Jim Prichard are organizing the event. It will be complete with German food and music. all you'll have to bring is your own German beer. It will be advertised in the Sunday bulletins at Holy Redeemer and St. Joes. Hopefully we will be able to insert flyers into the bulletins at St. Andrews. It's open to everyone. Bring your friends and neighbors. I don't know who volunteered to help at this event, but if anyone could help with the set up and serving, or the breakdown and clean up please let Jim, Ed, or Paul know. It always makes things so much easier when you have help.

Also in the works Brothers Paul Martin, Greg Makozy and Ed Ciacone are organizing a Knights of Columbus Family Night Hockey Trip. The cost of $99 per person covers the round-trip charter bus and a ticket to the Florida Panthers vs. Buffalo Sabers on Saturday, November 21st. The charter bus will be departing Holy Redeemer at 3:00 pm. Advance payment by checks for the trip need to be paid no later than September 30th. in the Holy Redeemer Parish Office. Contact Greg Makozy at 954-218-2947 or Paul Martin at 561-906-7321 with any questions.

In finishing this message I'd like to remind everyone we're heading into the busy time of year with membership drives, a recruitment spaghetti dinner, Bob Ward Thanksgiving meals, Stuart Christmas parade, breakfast with Santa, and our awesome Christmas Dinner Dance. Any and all help will be greatly appreciated.

Vivat Jesus

Twenty-Five Years Later: Remembering 9/11 with Faith, Unity, and Purpose

This September marks the 25th anniversary of the September 11, 2001 attacks, a day that forever changed our nation and remains etched into the heart of every American. A quarter century has passed, yet the memories of that morning — the shock, the sorrow, the heroism, and the extraordinary unity that followed — continue to shape who we are and how we understand the meaning of service.

Nearly 3,000 innocent lives were lost in New York, Washington, and Pennsylvania. In the midst of devastation, we witnessed remarkable courage: firefighters climbing smoke-filled stairwells, police officers rushing toward danger, medical teams working tirelessly, and ordinary citizens helping strangers without hesitation. Their sacrifice reminds us that even in the darkest moments, the light of human dignity and compassion cannot be extinguished.

For people of faith, 9/11 is not only a historical event but a call to prayerful remembrance. We honor the victims, support the families who still carry the weight of loss, and give thanks for the first responders and military personnel who stepped forward with unwavering resolve. We also reflect on the resilience that followed — communities gathering in churches, synagogues, and civic halls; neighbors comforting one another; and a nation rediscovering the strength that comes from unity.

As Knights of Columbus, we are called to keep that spirit alive. Our principles of charity, unity, and fraternity mirror the very virtues that carried our country through the days after 9/11. By serving our parish, supporting our community, and standing firmly for the dignity of every human life, we help ensure that the legacy of that day is not only one of tragedy, but of renewed commitment to one another.

Twenty-five years later, we remember. We pray. We serve. And we continue to build the kind of world where peace, compassion, and brotherhood prevail — the world so many heroes on 9/11 gave their lives to protect. And as we look ahead, we carry a solemn responsibility: to teach our children what happened that day, to pass on the stories of courage and unity, and to ensure that future generations never forget the lessons written in the sacrifice of so many. Remembrance is not only about honoring the past — it is about shaping the hearts of those who will lead our nation tomorrow.

Bingo Update

The first day of fall is this month, yet we won't see any break (in the temperature) for another month. Kids are back in school, and we are returning to a normal routine. What about starting a new routine for us Knights? I am talking to the 270 Knights that don't help with Bingo. This supports the first pillar of being a Knight. Remember back when we were exemplified in first degree (Charity), then second degree (Unity), then third degree (Fraternity)? Well, now we do all three degrees at once, but it doesn't make them any less important to our mission. If you take a look at what we did in last year's budget, essentially EVERY Penny we earned went to folks who could use it. From seminarians, to House of Hope, to Carpenter's Kitchen, St. Vincent de Paul (both at Holy Redeemer and St. Joe's), LAHIA, Special Olympics, and the list goes on, our Council has been proactively reaching out and helping these and other organizations to put food on the table and making things just a bit easier for those in need. But we cannot do it alone. Please consider volunteering once a month for Bingo. Whether it be card sales, interacting with the players on the floor, or specialized activities (like being the lead cashier or caller), we can always use a bit of help. Please give Pat Volpe a call or text if you can help with card sales, or myself if you want to work on the floor. We can certainly use the floor help from 1 to 4. All that entails is calling out bingo card numbers to the caller for verification of winners. And you get to see the happy winners celebrate with their friends.

Bingo will be in full swing every Sunday until the fall.

Bingo doors open at noon on Sunday, and first game starts at 1:00 p.m. The games currently last until 4 to 4:15, so it is not an all-day affair.

All we are asking for is a commitment of a couple of hours per month. While I do sincerely appreciate those gentlemen who come in week after week, I am appealing to our other brother Knights. Please prayerfully consider using some of your time (and talent) to spread charity and goodwill to our biggest charitable event. Please help us keep alive the first pillar of the Knights of Columbus – Charity. Please let me know if you would like to help!

God Bless.

The Jesuit Priests Who Survived Hiroshima

In the midst of the devastation, eight Jesuit missionaries who were in their rectory survived.

Seventy-five years ago — on Aug. 6, 1945 — a B-29 Superfortress named the Enola Gay struck out across the Pacific and dropped a uranium-235 atomic bomb on Hiroshima, Japan. The bomb code-named “Little Boy,” flattened buildings for miles in all directions. Tens of thousands of people were killed instantly. That strike and the subsequent atomic bomb attack by the U.S. on the city of Nagasaki three days later brought an end to World War II, as the Japanese military leaders realized that they could not win.

But in the midst of the devastation, near the hypocenter of the attack, eight Jesuit missionaries who were in their rectory survived. Four of the priests whose lives were spared are known by name: Father Hugo Lassalle, Father Wilhelm Kleinsorge, Father Hubert Schiffer and Father Hubert Cieslik sustained only minor injuries from shattered windows. None suffered hearing loss from the explosion. Their church, Our Lady of the Assumption, suffered the destruction of its stained-glass windows but did not fall; it was one of only a few buildings left standing in the midst of widespread destruction.

Not only were the clerics kept safe from the initial blast — they suffered no ill effects from the harmful radiation. Doctors who cared for them after the blast warned that radiation poisoning to which they had been exposed would cause serious lesions, illness and even death. But 200 medical exams in the ensuing years showed no ill effects, confounding the doctors who had predicted dire consequences.

Father Schiffer, who was only 30 years old when the bomb was dropped on Hiroshima, told his story 31 years later, at the Eucharistic Congress in Philadelphia in 1976. At the time, all eight members of the Jesuit community who had lived through the bombing were still alive. Before the gathered faithful, he reminisced about celebrating Mass in the early morning, then sitting down in the rectory kitchen for breakfast. His memories were vivid: He had just sliced and dug his spoon into a grapefruit when there was a bright flash of light. Speaking before the Eucharistic Congress, he said that at first, he thought it might be an explosion in the nearby harbor. Then he described the experience:

Suddenly, a terrific explosion filled the air with one bursting thunder stroke. An invisible force lifted me from the chair, hurled me through the air, shook me, battered me, whirled me round and round like a leaf in a gust of autumn wind.

More details have been reported by a priest who once met Father Schiffer at the Tri-City Airport in Saginaw, Michigan. Father Schiffer visited the state to give a talk before the Blue Army, an organization that promotes the apparitions at Fatima. The priest recounted their conversation:

The next thing he remembered, he opened his eyes and he was lying on the ground. He looked around and there was NOTHING in any direction: the railroad station and buildings in all directions were leveled to the ground. The only physical harm to himself was that he could feel a few pieces of glass in the back of his neck. As far as he could tell, there was nothing else physically wrong with himself. Many thousands were killed or maimed by the explosion. After the conquest of the Americans, their army doctors and scientists explained to him that his body would begin to deteriorate because of the radiation. Many of the Japanese people had blisters and sores from the radiation. To the doctors' amazement, Father Schiffer's body contained no radiation or ill-effects from the bomb. Father Schiffer attributes this to devotion to the Blessed Mother, and his daily Fatima Rosary. He feels that he received a protective shield from the Blessed Mother which protected him from all radiation and ill-effects. (This coincides with the bombing of Nagasaki where St. Maximilian Kolbe had established a Franciscan Friary which was also unharmed because of special protection from the Blessed Mother, as the Brothers too prayed the daily Rosary and also had no effects from the bomb.)

Father Schiffer and the other Jesuits were examined and interviewed repeatedly by scientists, medical doctors and others who could not understand why they had escaped injury. Father Schiffer reportedly said that he himself had been interviewed 200 times. Asked why they believe they were spared, when so many others died either from the explosion or from the subsequent radiation, Father Schiffer spoke for himself and for his companions:

We believe that we survived because we were living the message of Fatima. We lived and prayed the Rosary daily in that home.

Father Schiffer died on March 27, 1982 — 37 years after that eventful day.

A dramatic reconnaissance photo captured shortly after the bombing shows Father Schiffer's church, standing alone amidst the devastated city. There in the street stand four of those faithful Jesuit priests, gazing across the miles of flattened homes and businesses toward the horizon, and giving thanks that God had spared them to continue in his work.

DAILY PRAYER TO END ABORTION

Lord God, I thank you today for the gift of my life, and for the lives of all my brothers and sisters. I know there is nothing that destroys more life than abortion, yet I rejoice that you have conquered death, by the Resurrection of Your Son. I am ready to do my part in ending abortion.

Today I commit myself never to be silent, never to be passive, and never to be forgetful of the unborn. I commit myself to be active in the Treasure Coast pro-life movement, and never to stop defending life until all my brothers and sisters are protected, and our nation once again becomes a nation with liberty and justice not just for some, but for all.

Through Christ Our Lord, Amen.
